CHAIRMAN'S REMARKS

As most of you will know by now, the RCEME community was shocked to hear of the sudden and unexpected passing of BGen (ret'd) Bill Brewer and Col (ret'd) Tom Temple. Both devoted a remarkable amount of personal time and energy in their roles as Colonel Commandant of the Corps and as founding members of the RCEME Heritage and Museum Foundation. They both had a genuine passion for the RCEME Corps and enjoyed the admiration and respect of all ranks.

We wish to thank Mrs Brewer and Mrs Temple for encouraging Bill and Tom's families and friends to make memorial donations to the Foundation. As of the publication of this Newsletter, a total of $10,804 had been donated. To all of you who made donations, thank you.

It took a while but the RCEME Museum highway signs have been installed along highways 401 and 15

New Vice Chairman of the RCEME Foundation

The RCEME Foundation Board of Directors is pleased to announce the appointment of BGen (Ret'd) Scott Kennedy as its new Vice-Chairman. Scott had been serving on the Board as a Director.

Mat Tech Innovation

Our third RCEME story is now available on the Museum's website. This story of innovation and teamwork was born out of a tragic accident that took the lives of two combat medics during operations in Afghanistan in June 2010.

Museum Book of Remembrance Update

The digital version of the RCEME Book of Remembrance (BoR) was officially opened on 22 October 2022. As you can see, since then, a panel has been installed above the BoR kiosk which shows the RCEME the Memorial Gate at Barriefield entrance to CFB Kingston, it complements the Honours and Awards section of the Museum. Museum visitors are encouraged to view or search the names of

ONLINE RCEME STORIES

These three online RCEME stories are currently available on the RCEME Museum website:

• The Kingsmill Bridge

 A story of courage, leadership and innovation under fire during the Italian Campaign of WWII

• The Forgotten War Remembered

 A reminder that the so-called Korean "Police Action" was still a war and that one of our own is buried in Busan

Material Technician Innovation

 This story begins in Afghanistan when two Canadian combat medics are killed when their Bison ambulance is struck by an Improvised Explosive Device. It's all about how Mat Tech teamwork and innovation led to the design of a new combat ambulance

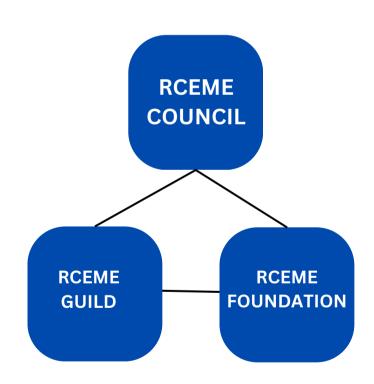

In 2023 we plan to publish three more RCEME stories beginning with another one from WWII. This one is about the crucial role RCEME played in the conversion of light tanks into "Kangaroo" Armoured Personnel Carriers.

To complete our 2023 stories, we are exploring the following:

- DND Research & Development
- The Alaska Highway
- The last RCEME Veteran of WWII
- Our Indigenous members

With the creation of the RCEME Heritage and Museum Foundation in 2019, heritage and museum programmes are now supported by three separate but linked RCEME organizations - led by the RCEME Corps Council in partnership with the RCEME Guild and the RCEME Foundation. Although these three organizations have separate mandates and authorities, together, they ensure a coherent and managed approach to RCEME heritage and museum programmes.

RCEME CORPS COUNCIL

Led by the RCEME Corps Director and Corps Chief Warrant Officer and supported by the Corps Heritage

Committee Chairman and the RCEME Colonel Commandant, the Council provides leadership and overall direction for all RCEME heritage programmes and museum operations. It also manages public money allocated to support heritage and museum activities, and retains ownership of the Museum and Corps artifacts, on behalf of DND.

RCEME GUILD

Chaired by the Corps Director and Co-Chaired by a former RCEME CWO representing local LADs, the RCEME Guild has four primary objectives:

- to perpetuate the bonds of comradeship and esprit de corps within the Corps community of serving and retired members;
- to foster, maintain, and promote the wellbeing of the members of the RCEME Corps community;
- to encourage and support public interest in the RCEME Corps and its heritage; and
- to assist in the preservation of the traditions, memorabilia, and customs of the RCEME Corps, including the RCEME Army Cadet Corps.

RCEME FOUNDATION

Chaired by a retired RCEME Corps Senior Leader elected by a volunteer Board of Directors, the Foundation is a Not-for-Profit, Registered Canadian charity (operating legally, separate from the RCEME Corps Council) whose purpose is to financially support RCEME heritage projects, Museum operations, and related educational programmes which preserve and promote the heritage and legacy of the RCEME Corps for all Canadians.

These three RCEME organizations coordinate RCEME heritage and Museum events, projects, and fundraising activities through joint Heritage, Leadership and Governance committees; including the Heritage Committee and the Museum Committee, both of which are Chaired by the Corps Heritage Director and report to Corps Council.

Of note, the RCEME Colonel Commandant with his unique role of advising the Corps leadership and representing all members of the RCEME Corps, is a member or advisor to all three RCEME heritage organizations.

In summary, the RCEME Council provides overall leadership and management of Corps heritage and Museum programmes. The RCEME Foundation provides funding and volunteer resources for digital projects and education programmes to support heritage and Museum objectives, and the RCEME Guild supports the broader RCEME community by operating and funding local RCEME events and heritage activities.

As a Registered Charity, the Foundation does not have members nor does it collect dues but relies exclusively on donor support. In 2023, the RCEME Foundation plans to conduct its annual fundraising programme, consisting of:

- The 79th Corps Birthday Campaign in May, initiating our Youth STEM Education programme, featuring Scholarships for deserving RCEME Army Cadets
- Our Summer 2023 Campaign will support our Digital Honours, Decorations and Medals Project; and,
- The 2023 Year-end Campaign will support our Digital Museum and Archives operations.

The Foundation will strive to enlarge our individual and corporate donor base in 2023, working closely with the Corps Council and the Guild to ensure our programmes offer unique value to the RCEME community in the Heritage, Digital and Education areas mentioned above. We hope you will continue to join us on this journey during 2023 and beyond.

USEFUL INFORMATION FOR RCEME VETERANS

Most of our contacts who receive our Newsletters are retired RCEME members or their relatives. Listed below are a number of programmes and other useful information that are available to retired RCEME members and/or their families. Although many of these may not apply to your specific circumstances, it may be useful to know they exist in order to assist others who find themselves in need of assistance.

Veterans Affairs Canada

Veterans Affairs Canada offers 29 different benefits and services for military veterans. Veterans Affairs will assist you in seeking benefits and services that are available to you. Each benefit and service offered outlines the questions to confirm you qualify for the benefit, and how to apply. Go to their website here for a complete listing of the benefits and services that are offered. Most of these benefits are dependent on having a diagnosis of a disability which they will assist you in submitting a request, but others include services such as having a Mental Health Professional on call at 1-800-268-7708, Veterans Emergency Fund for food, shelter or medical expenses, etc.

Free Airplane Luggage Fees!

Canadian airlines offer veterans deals on carry-on and/or checked baggage. Normally this cannot be claimed in advance when booking the ticket online, nor at a kiosk at airport, but only with a ticket agent at the airport. The policies for the airlines should be checked on the airline web sites for their current baggage policies. Currently, WestJet, Air Canada, Air Canada Rouge and Air Canada Express offer free baggage of 3-4 pieces of luggage.

Veterans Websites

There are various websites available for veterans to join that meet a range of different interests. On Facebook, go to 'Groups', and use the 'Search Groups' to insert either of the group names below.

- Veterans of the RCEME Corps a group on Facebook that requires a request to join.
- Canadian Military Photos Lost and Found Research Group
